Remembrance Sunday Service

A Divine Service, in honour of those who had lost their lives or had been injured during active duty, was held at the Cenotaph in Jamestown on Sunday, 11 November 2018.

Her Excellency Governor Lisa Honan arrived at 10.55am, and The Most Reverend Dr Thabo Cecil Makgoba – Archbishop of Cape Town and Metropolitan of the Anglican Church of Southern Africa, invited those in attendance to pray, before observing a two-minute silence, signalled by the Last Post which was solemnly played by the Scouts. Following the two-minute silence, the poem 'Tribute to the Millions' was read by Chief Secretary, Susan O'Bey, to mark the 100th anniversary of the end of World War One.

Wreaths were laid by HE Governor Lisa Honan, The President of the French Republic (Michel Dancoisne-Martineau), the Royal Navy (Father Jack Horner), the Army (Nigel Dollery), the Royal Air Force (Marco Yon), the Merchant Navy (Ethel Benjamin), the St Helena Police Service (Garry Henry), and the St Helena Fire & Rescue Service (Kyle Yon). Several schoolchildren also laid wreaths.

The Right Reverend Allan John Kannemeyer – Bishop of the Diocese of Pretoria read the Lesson and prayers were led by Father David Musgrave, Lieutenant Coral Yon, Elder Brian Joshua and Bishop Elect Dale Bowers. During the Service, hymns were sung, including 'O God, Our Help in Ages Past', 'The Lord's My Shepherd' and 'Praise My Soul the King of Heaven'. The Act of Commitment was made and acts of peace were then offered. The Service concluded with the National Anthem and Blessing, followed by the March-Past outside the Court House.

Remembrance Sunday on St Helena was duly observed and very well attended.

Editorial

We have seen a lot of big events this week, especially last weekend when we had the centenary of the first world war armistice on 11th November 1918. We also had the enthronement of Bishop Dale and later the lighting of the Beacon at Kingshurst.

The end of festival of running and the opening of the Bank of St Helena Youth Games were also on the event calendar.

When it comes to political news it has been much drier. Really, there has been very little to report. I am getting seriously worried about the fibre-optic cable as a financial close for the South Atlantic Express (SAEx) is dragging on. The financial close means that finances have been guaranteed and the project can start. We suspect that Telecom Italia through their subsidiary Sparkle is one of the main investors in the project and Telecom Italia is in quite a bit of problem at the moment. Their credit rating has fallen and it seems like they are trying to sell off Sparkle, which will leave the SAEx project in the lurk, at least in the short term.

You might ask why I worry about these kind of things. To me and many others interested in the development of St Helena the fibre optic cable is absolutely imperative to ever get this Island to move forward. We need the cable and we need the ground stations to support the usage of the bandwidth it creates. We believe that the cable consultant Tony Fisk is arriving shortly. His main task will be to decide where the cable, if there is one should be landed on the Island. As far as I know there have several suggestions, from Rupert's to Sandy Bay. For St Helena to get the promised EU money to pay for the spur from the main cable to the Island we will need to decide on a landing site before the end of this year. This is doable but EU also ask for a route survey to be undertaken before the end of June next year. This might be a problem, if there is no financial close for SAEx there cannot be a route survey. For St Helena's sake, I hope it sort itself out.

Anyway - hope you don't blow away over weekend, gusts of Gale force are expected.

Big Visitor at Ascension Island

Yesterday morning the super yacht Dorothea III visited Ascension Island. She is 47 metres long and has a beam of 12 metres.

The yacht is owned by Steven and Dorothea Green. He is the founder and chairman of Greenstreet Partners, former chairman and CEO of Samsonite Corporation and was U.S. ambassador to Singapore from 1997 to 2001.

The yacht has since left Ascension and it looks like she is heading for Brazil. It would have been nice to see her in James' Bay but from her course it seems unlikely, at least in the near future. It has been said that the Dorothea III is worth $50 million

Grand Competition

Win £500 with SHELCO

The new owners of SHELCO have come to the conclusion that the name of the proposed development at Broad bottom does not sound attractive enough to make a mark in the market place. Sometimes, having the right name can make the difference between success and failure.

SHELCO have decided to award a prize of £500 for the person on St Helena that suggests a new name for the proposed golf course development at Broad bottom.

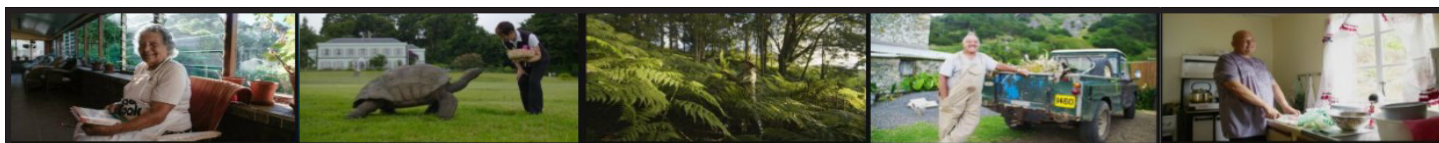

The name should be easy to pronounce, and be attractive to potential purchasers.

If you're suggested name is chosen, or a close derivative of it, then you will receive a cash prize of £500. If two people coincidentally choose the same name and that name is selected, the prize money will be split.

To avoid sharing, keep your suggestion secret.

Your suggestions and you can choose multiple names if you wish, should be sent with your name, to Saint FM via the email admin.fm@helanta.co.sh or in a sealed envelope delivered to Saint FM Office

Closing date for the competition is 30 November 2018

SENIOR AIRLINK DELEGATION VISITS ST HELENA

A meeting was held on Saturday, 10 November 2018, to undertake the first annual review of the contract to provide an air service to St Helena. Chief Financial Officer in Airlink, de Villiers Engelbrecht, joined representatives from the St Helena Government (SHG), Enterprise St Helena (ESH), and Legislative Council for the meeting. Representatives from the Department for International Development (DFID) joined via telephone link.

The meeting was chaired by SHG Deputy Airport Contracts Manager, James Kellett, who led discussion on a wide range of topics. Agenda items included a review of the annual performance of the contract in its first year, marketing activities actioned to date, plans for 2019 and beyond in respect of commercial and marketing activities, and discussion on various operational matters.

James commented:

"We are all pleased with the first year of operations and in particular to have a service that experienced a small surplus; this has only been possible due to the close cooperation of SHG, Airlink, airport staff and subcontractors, and ESH. We now turn our focus to using the lessons learnt from this initial year as the service grows in the second year of operations".

The meeting also included discussion around ongoing operations from Johannesburg, future plans for the air service, as well as planning for the additional flights due to commence in December 2018.

Chief Executive for Economic Development, Dawn Cranswick, said:

"The Review Meeting provided some useful insights into Airlink's promotion of St Helena as one of their destinations, and we will be working together on co-ordination of our activities for the future."

Airlink's CEO and Managing director, Rodger Foster, added:

"The occasion of the first anniversary of the St Helena air link is worthy of celebration, especially so given that during the first year of operations over 6,000 customers experienced the time efficiency of air access. We are delighted to have delivered safe and reliable air services and to have transformed access to and from St Helena. Airlink is privileged to have a close working relationship with the St Helena Government and we will continue to look for ways in which the service may be improved and in particular in addressing the wishes of our customers."

SHG, Airlink, DFID and ESH will continue to meet on a regular basis to monitor the performance of the service, plan for future changes, and to discuss operational matters as they arise.

How two local craft business are starting to export

With the focus on 'Export' in the latest SEDP, two local craft businesses are taking the first steps to making genuine St Helenian products available to the online Market.

G-Unique Designs, our local jewellery business has teamed up with GK Crafts, our local stationery & souvenir provider to offer St Helenian gifts and gift sets on the online market - currently being distributed from the UK via the G-Unique website at www.g-unique designs.com.

The idea began as a result of requests for the products made by G-Unique Designs & GK Crafts to be sent off island to Saints overseas.

However, collaboration between these two businesses is not a new concept, as G-Unique & GK Crafts have been working together since 2011 when GK Crafts approached G-Unique about selling their greeting cards in the G-Unique Boutique. Since then the relationship has grown to providing collaborative gift sets of jewellery and stationery on island.

So a natural progression has now taken place whereby the duo businesses have started looking to a market outside of St Helena who appreciates the unique nature of hand-made gifts.

With G-Unique already having an established website with e-commerce facilities (whereby anyone with an international debit/credit card or a Paypal account can place an order) - it seemed the most logical step. Any products listed on the website have already been sent to the UK, so will be distributed from the UK, rather than having the unpredictable waiting times from St Helena.

If you head to the G-Unique website: www.g-unique designs.com/gift-sets-sthelenia you will find a selection of these gift sets which includes local jewellery, stationery & even a commemorative collection RMS St Helena gift sets. These feature Jonathan, the Wirebird, Scenes of the island, the Whale-shark, the Arum lily, Napoleon & more.

Napoleon in St Helena gift set1

The G-Unique jewellery also featured on the website in a separate section incorporates the local horsebead seed, locally-fused glass and jewellery with the St Helena charms. Find these at: www.g-unique designs.com/jewelleryfromsthelena

G-Unique & GK Crafts says they hope this is the start of something positive, with the aim to start with a small selection to test the market and then take it from there. They'd like to thank anyone who has supported them so far and hope that Saints overseas will take advantage of this service, especially in time for the festive season. More products will continue to be added in 2019 based on the feedback & demand over the next few months.

'Maintaining a craft business on St Helena is a challenge as we not only have to compete with similar mass-produced products on the market; but we also have to invest a great deal of time, money and skills into our work before we even have a finished product. It takes patience & perseverance - but we do it because we love it. We hope our customers will appreciate the hand-made nature of our products & feel proud to say they have been created on St Helena.'

EXCO REPORT – TUESDAY 13 NOVEMBER 2018

Executive Council met today with just one item on the open agenda. This was to consider an increase in fees and charges under the Road Traffic Ordinance 1985. It was noted that these fees and charges have not increased since April 2013 and that an increase would help to ensure ongoing delivery of SHG services.

Following discussion, Council agreed that the proposed increases which range between 10% to 12% over current rates, should be approved to take effect from 1 December 2018.

Details of these increases will shortly be published in a Legal Notice and via an SHG Press Release.

INITIAL POLICE TRAINING

WEEK THREE

Over the weekend of 2 & 3 November, the students were paired up with an experienced Police Officer and went out on patrol. They dealt with a variety of incidents from parking obstructions to dealing with intoxicated members of the public. The debrief on Monday morning highlighted that Policing is diverse and no shift is exactly the same. The students expressed their enjoyment of putting what they have been learning into practice.

Monday, saw the students attending Magistrates Court for a visit, whilst also giving evidence relating to the stop/search exercise they had conducted the previous Thursday. The experience highlighted the importance of taking their time whilst completing paperwork and to pay more attention to detail. Thanks go to the Chief Magistrate for his time during the visit.

On Tuesday, the students were introduced to traffic legislation, exploring the difference between a mechanically propelled vehicle and a motor vehicle. The afternoon saw more scenario training taking place outside of Donny's Club. Students noted that it is fairly difficult to stop a vehicle in a safe, controlled manner, and then to start applying applicable legislation, ensuring that the correct piece of legislation is used.

On Wednesday, the students took part in the major incident exercise at St Helena Airport.

They then returned to the classroom on Thursday where a guest speaker spoke about Construction & Use offences, how to spot defective windows, wipers, and exhausts.

Believe and Achieve St Helena ('BASH')

We Want You!

BASH is a charity working with Y9 students on St Helena. We chose Y9 because it's an important year where young people make decisions leading to jobs, further education, apprenticeships, friendships, and more! Our mission statement is; to educate and inspire young people on St Helena to achieve positive personal, social and educational growth. We do this through a combination of one to one mentoring with adults from the community and group activities.

13 young people completed the first round of BASH last year thanks to the support of the local community and the BASH family! This year BASH has doubled in size so we are hoping to recruit mentors, facilitators and supporters to help the future leaders of St Helena reach their goals.

'Mentoring' can fit around you. It is fun, informal and the frequency of contact is agreed between the young person and the mentor.

'Facilitators' deliver one off group sessions with the BASH young people. Topics will be linked to the areas in our mission statement.

'Supporters' contribute to the running of BASH. This could be financially, through the donation of goods or both. Previous examples have included a donation to assist the purchase of study guides.

Big thankyou's go to; Rose & Crown, Thorpes, Prince Andrew School staff, Noleen Fowler and Essence, National Trust Marine Team, the Enchanted Isle, SAMS Radio1, Saint FM, Jamestown CC, Half Tree Hollow CC, the Community Development Organisation, Louise MacMorran & Plantation House staff, founders Esther John and Amira-Abdel Aziz and all of the BASH family!

If you are interested in getting involved in any way then please get in touch! Mentor applications will be required by Friday 23rd November 2018. Please contact Fiona Campbell on 67527/22374 or Nicola Brown on 67468 or via e-mail fionacampbell23@hotmail.co.uk with any questions.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Sunday's Manchester derby highlighted how far United is behind City in terms of class. City outplayed them for 90% of the match and totally deserved all 3 points. It is heart-breaking to see how much United have fallen since the departure of Sir Alex Ferguson and consequently the year of their last League Title.

Mourinho was less than gracious in defeat he said the hosts had an advantage as their past two games - home thrashings of Southampton and Shakhtar Donetsk in which they won by an aggregate 12-1 - were significantly more straightforward than his team's most recent matches.

This was United's third away game in succession, following back-to-back wins at Bournemouth last weekend and Juventus on Wednesday.

"It's a heavy result for the effort of a team that had three away matches in the same week, with a super difficult match of a high, demanding level in Juventus against a team that had two friendly matches at home against Southampton and Shakhtar," Mourinho told BBC Radio 5 live.

Liverpool briefly went to the top of the table as they defeated Fulham 2-0. Fulham thought they had scored only for the goal to be ruled offside. 14 seconds later Salah scored after Allison took a quick free kick. This goal was controversial as the ball was still moving when the goal keeper kicked it.

Xherdan Shaqiri's cushioned finish in the second half confirmed victory for the Reds who equalled their best start to a Premier League season, which came in 2002-03.

Chelsea dropped points against Everton as they could only draw 0-0.

Arsenal scored late as they rescued a point in their home game against Wolves. In a thrilling contest, Wolves almost snatched it in stoppage time when 18-year-old substitute Morgan Gibbs-White hit the bar.

The fifth-placed Gunners are three points behind fourth-placed Tottenham, while Wolves remain 11th in the table.

Cardiff picked up 3 more vital points as they defeated Brighton 2-1. Brighton was reduced to 10 men after just 34 minutes. Brighton boss Chris Hughton said he was "angry" over an offside claim in the build-up to Sol Bamba's last-minute winner.

Huddersfield took a 6 minute lead against West Ham and looked on course for their second win only for Felipe Anderson to equalise with a fine goal in the 74th minute.

Leicester returned to the Kings Power Stadium for the first time since the death of their Chairman Vichai Srivaddhanaprabha. In an emotional match they could only draw 0-0 with Burnley.

Newcastle has picked up two consecutive wins as they beat Bournemouth 2-1. On loan striker Salomon Rondon scored twice for the magpies; this result moves them up to 14th place. Referee Simon Hooper can in for a lot of criticism as Southampton had a good goal disallowed for offside in their match with Watford which ended in a draw. The referee incorrectly believed Austin's shot had gone in off team-mate Maya Yoshida, who was in an offside position.

Juan Foyth who concedes two penalties in Spurs last match was the hero as he scored the only goal in their win against Crystal Palace. Palace have now failed to win in seven games in all competitions and were left rueing James Tomkins' failure to hit the target with a free header when it was goalless.

The hosts pushed for an equaliser late on, but Spurs captain Hugo Lloris did well to deny Jeffrey Schlupp, ex-Tottenham man Andros Townsend and substitute Alexander Sorloth as the visitors held on.

The result leaves the Eagles 16th, only out of the relegation zone on goal difference, while fourth-placed Tottenham are two points behind leaders Manchester City, although the top three are all in action on Sunday.

There will not be any Premier League games this weekend due to international matches being played.

England's Wayne Rooney will be used as a second-half substitute in his 120th and final appearance for the Three Lions against the United States on Thursday. England then plays Croatia at Wembley on Sunday.

SHFA Update Ynys Mon 2019

As the training intensifies for next year's Tournament so does the Fund raising efforts. Raffle tickets with the star prize being the Ford Focus ST is selling steadily.....if we do sell out the tickets, the Raffle will be held sooner. So far we have sold 1/8 of the tickets. The Car will arrive on island today.

Also planned is an 80's Disco which will be held at the God Fathers Rock Club on Saturday 15th December with Music by DJ Wayne Crowie. Tickets are £3 and are on sale at New Horizons and from all Squad and Committee Members. On the 27th December we are having an historic sponsored walk from the Airport to Ruperts Jetty (Port to Port). Sponsored papers will be available from New Horizons on Monday.

So many players are not only training hard but changing their life styles to be in with a chance to make history in becoming the first St Helenians to take part in an International Football Tournament for St Helena. We urge the public to support our fund raising efforts to make their dreams become a reality.

The 14th Annual Bank of St Helena (BOSH) Youth Games launched on Friday afternoon at the Leisure Park.

The games have been organised by New Horizons once again. Bank of St Helena has been the lead sponsor for the games since they began in 2005.

The evening began with Speeches from Larry Thomas, Chairman of New Horizons, Nick Stevens, Manager of New Horizons and Mercia George from the Bank of St Helena.

Mercia said that the Bank of St Helena were pleased they were able to sponsor the games once again this year and officially declared the games open.

All of the island's districts have been grouped together to form four teams: Longwood, Levelwood, and Alarm Forest have combined and are being led by Matthias Young, Jamestown, Blue Hill and Sandy Bay are being led by Aiden Yon-Stevens & Brett Isaac, St Pauls by Danielle Benjamin & Jia Peters, and Half Tree Hollow by Brooke Yon.

2018's edition of the games opened with the volleyball tournament sponsored by Queen Mary Stores.

Each team played three games each and the medals were determined by the best of the three which saw Longwood, Levelwood & Alarm Forest picking up the gold medals, Jamestown, Blue Hill & Sandy Bay picking up silver and St Pauls picking up the Bronze and all medals were awarded by Anita Magellan from Queen Mary Stores.

The games will continue for the remainder of this month into the beginning of December that will see the island's youth between the ages of 11-18 to compete in a variety of sporting events.

On Tuesday the first round of the Shooting competition sponsored by the National Sports Association of St Helena took place at the Jamestown moat and tonight will see the districts battle it out in the Basketball sponsored by A & D's Mini Mart. Next Week will see the districts compete in Badminton on Tuesday sponsored by Wendy Benjamin and the beginning of the pool competition sponsored by Sally's DVD Hire.

They encourage spectators to go along to these events and support our youth.

Thank You

from

St Paul's Primary School

Head teacher, Staff and PTA members of St Paul's Primary School would like to thank all those families who attended and supported their Primary Halloween disco, which was held on Friday 02nd November at the Kingshurst Community Centre.

A special thanks to everyone who organised and contributed towards making this event successful. This included stalls such as Face painting, Tattoos, Nail Art, Bracelet and Necklace making, a tuck shop, hot dogs and popcorn stall.

The PTA raised a profit of £559.22. This will go towards a much needed shelter for the children during wet playtime. PTA will accept any donations for this worthy cause, please contact the school.

Thanks for your continued support and we look forward to seeing you all at our Christmas Parade, Carolling and Advent Service.
